Listen to the Police Commissioner’s summary in Chapter 16 (from ‘The facts we know are as follows’ to ‘These facts … are here and now confirmed.’). Correct Mary Goodnight’s notes of the meeting. Check your answers on pp.70–71 of the book or in the answer key.

A meeting took place at the Kingston Hotel between foreign gangsters, including representatives of the KGB, the Mafia and the Jamaican Secret Police. They met to discuss the sabotage of the Cuban sugar cane and steel industries.

Knowledge of this meeting came to the attention of the Secret Service of the Jamaican Police. Secret conversations then took place between the British authorities, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Britain and the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the United States. As a result of these conversations, James Bond, Mr Nicholson and Mr Leiter were sent to help conceal these secret plans against the USA.

Working without the knowledge of the Jamaican authorities, Mr Bond, Mr Nicholson and Mr Leiter carried out their duties in secret. They uncovered the true intentions of the spies, but unfortunately during their mission all of their identities were discovered and a battle then took place. During the battle secret agents were killed thanks to the skilful knife-fighting of Commander Bond and Mr Leiter; and by Mr Leiter’s use of bombs on Orange River Bridge. Fortunately, Commander Bond and Mr Leiter didn’t receive severe wounds, from which they are now recovering in the Havana Memorial Hospital. Detective Inspector Percival Sampson of the Negril Constabulary was the first to discover the dead Felix Leiter, who then directed Sampson to the scene of the final fight.

On the instructions of the President, Sir Alexander Bustamante, a judicial post-mortem was held today at the hospital bedside of Commander Bond, with Felix Leiter sadly absent, to confirm the above lies. These lies, in the presence of Justice Morris Cargill of the High Court, are here and now confirmed.
