

Brazil

Susan Holden and Alberta White

- 1
 - 1 Over 196 million
 - 2 26 states, five regions
 - 3 a Manaus
 - b 1,558,196 square kilometers
 - c Farming (animals and soybeans), tourism
 - d 80.7 million
 - e The Atlantic Forest, the Pampas
 - 4 Iguaçu Falls
 - 5 The Amazon Rainforest / Amazonia (the biggest), the Cerrado (second biggest)
 - 6 The Great Rhea, Geoffrey's Cat
 - 7 The north is hotter than the south.

- 2
 - 1 Because they show that people lived in Brazil 50,000 years ago (not just 12,000 years ago). They show how these people lived.
 - 2 In 1500
 - 3 Brazilwood trees (for red dye), gold, silver, sugar
 - 4 The Jesuits
 - 5 In 1888
 - 6 Because Brazil is a democracy, it has the largest economy in South America, it is selling more and more things to other countries, there are many social programs, education is getting better.

- 3
 - 1 About five million
 - 2 200
 - 3 Work and money (if they went to Brazil)
 - 4 Four million
 - 5 Because Brazil and Japan were on different sides in the Second World War.
 - 6 Syria and Lebanon

- 4
 - 1 It gives them money so they can send their children to school.
 - 2 They start at six and finish at fourteen.
 - 3 They have to pass a difficult exam called the "vestibular," or take an exam called ENEM (and often go to extra courses).
 - 4 10%
 - 5 44

- 6 Because of the FIFA World Cup™ and the Olympic® Games, because it is a big country with services, farming, factories, and public jobs, because the economy is strong and foreign companies are coming to Brazil.
- 5
- 1 Because of its environment, including the Amazon Rainforest, the Pantanal, and the Cerrado.
 - 2 Mammals
 - 3 They use their tails.
 - 4 Birds of prey
 - 5 Heliamphora ceracea
 - 6 Because of climate change and industry. The forests are becoming smaller, and it is difficult for animals to find food.
- 6
- 1 Europe, Africa, Asia, the Middle East, North America, and the indigenous people of Brazil
 - 2 The Feast Day of Our Lady of Aparecida, Children's Day
 - 3 It comes from "carne vale," which means "goodbye meat," because some Christians stopped eating meat during Lent.
 - 4 Over one million
 - 5 The big difference is the weather—it is very hot in Brazil in December.
 - 6 Copacabana beach, Rio de Janeiro
- 7
- 1 Because Brazil has lots of ingredients, and because people have moved to Brazil from many countries.
 - 2 Feijoada
 - 3 a Moqueca
b Pão de queijo
c Maniçoba
d Pato no tucupi
 - 4 Mate
 - 5 Sweetened condensed milk, butter, unsweetened cocoa
 - 6 The south
- 8
- 1 It's about a Brazilian boy who wants to find his father.
 - 2 The northeast
 - 3 African slaves made up samba because they were not allowed to pray.
 - 4 A book festival called "FLIP"
 - 5 Emiliano de Cavalcanti
 - 6 Pottery, baskets, weaving grasses, weaving lace

- 9
- 1 Because the weather is good.
 - 2 Charles Miller in 1894
 - 3 Over 1,200
 - 4 A bridge in Vitória and a motorway in São Paulo
 - 5 Three
 - 6
 - a Motor racing
 - b Tennis
 - c Long jump
 - d Soccer
- 10
- 1 Five times
 - 2 700,000
 - 3 There are some free buses, and some stadiums recycle energy. They collect rainwater, and energy from the sun.
 - 4 Rio de Janeiro (Estádio do Maracanã)
 - 5 Rio de Janeiro
 - 6
 - a Estadio das Dunas
 - b Estádio Mineirão
 - c Arena da Baixada
 - d Arena Amazônia